

Lanhee Yung is a Founding Partner of Sage Hall Partners. She was most recently Global Head and Managing Director in Starwood Capital's Fundraising and Investor Relations Group. In this role, she was responsible for raising capital globally on behalf of the Firm's private investment funds and co-investments in real estate and energy infrastructure. She was a member of the Firm's Investment Committee.

Prior to joining Starwood Capital in 2010, Lanhee was Head of Investor Relations & Fundraising for the CIM Group. She also worked at UBS Investment Bank and GLA Hotels and began her career at Merrill Lynch in the firm's Investment Bank. She is currently serving her third term on the Board of the Association of Foreign Investors in Real Estate (AFIRE) and is Founder of Young AFIRE. Lanhee is also the Founder of the Women's Tea at PREA and on the Board of Women in Real Estate. She was recently recognized by PERE Magazine as one of the "Thirty Rainmakers in Capital Raising".

Lanhee received her B.S. from Cornell University, School of Hotel Administration and earned her M.B.A. from ESSEC/Cornell University where she serves on the Hotel Society Board and Advisory Board of Center for Real Estate Finance. She also serves as a trustee of the Crossroads School for Arts & Sciences.